

Bumpus Gallery Presents Cape Cod Artist

An exhibit titled "Potpourri," featuring the watercolors of Elizabeth Pratt, will be on display at the Helen Bumpus Gallery in November and December.

A resident of Eastham, Pratt is a Copley Master and a juried member of the New England and New York City Watercolor societies. She is a founding member of the Spectrum Gallery in Washington, DC. Her work has appeared in many national juried shows and has been acquired by government agencies, corporations, and collectors.

A reception to meet the artist will be held at the Gallery from 2-4 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 17. Pratt will give a slide presentation and explain how she manipulates paint to achieve unusual effects. Refreshments will be served and all are invited.

The Helen Bumpus Gallery is located on the main level of the Duxbury Free Library, 77 Alden Street. The exhibit may be viewed during regular library hours. For information call 781-934-2721.
